	South Carolina.)

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) by way of a Petition to Intervene Out of Time filed on behalf of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company (Southern Bell or Petitioner). Southern Bell petitions the Commission for leave to intervene out of time as a formal party of record in the instant docket.

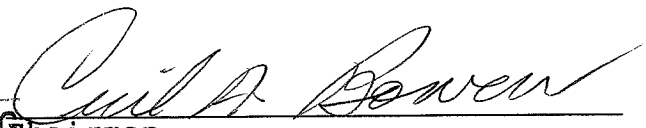

In support of its Petition to Intervene Out of Time, Southern Bell alleges that due to an accidental oversight, which constitutes excusable neglect, Southern Bell did not ascertain that the instant application had been filed. Southern Bell further asserts that upon review of the Application by Southern Bell, it has been determined that Southern Bell has a vital interest in the matter and requests to be permitted to intervene in the proceeding.

Furthermore, Southern Bell alleges that by allowing its intervention out of time, it will not cause a delay in complying with deadlines imposed for filing testimony or of the hearing scheduled in this matter.

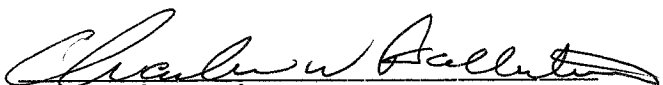

The Commission has reviewed the Petition to Intervene Out of Time filed on behalf of Southern Bell, as well as other matters in the instant docket. The Commission finds that good cause has been stated by Southern Bell to allow its intervention out of time in this matter. Additionally, the Commission notes that other parties have intervened in this matter and accordingly, allowing Southern Bell's Petition to Intervene Out of Time should not prejudice any party participating in this docket.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
